D A G D D A G D

I used to live with a wo-man who woke up on fire ev-'ry day.

5 A G D

Our old well did - n't have e-nough wa - ter, so I moved a - way.

7 D A G D D A

I could-n't take the way we were liv-ing, may-be I'm wrong. to me there's no-thing bet - ter

10 G D A G D D A

than a morn ing song. Where I live out- side my win-dow

14 G D D A G D

I can hear the birds sing. I lay_ in my bed_ and I won-der what the day will bring.

17 D A G D

Un-der-neath me the earth_ it's mov - ing hard, fast and_ strong.

19 D A G D A G D

Kind-a like to take it ea - sy like a morn- ing_ song.

23 D A G D

There was this man and he walked the world teach-ing peo ple_ how to live._

25 D A G D

One day they up_ and killed him, some- thing_ had to give.

27 D A G D

He spoke of li - lies and child - ren and a king - dom where we be - long..

29 D A G D A G D

That man he must have known the plea - sures of a morn ing song._____

33 A G D

I try to take a lit - tle time ev - 'ry day_ now to find a way to pray_ for all of the gifts_ I've been giv - en, for what's been_ ta - ken a - way.

35 D A G D

37 D A G D

for the know - ing of when to let_ go and when to hold_ on.

39 D A G D A G D

Most - ly I'm just hap - py to have_ my morn - ing_ song._____

43 D A G D

I had this dream that I passed from the plan - et with one last chance to look back,

45 D A G D

see what I might have missed , which les-sons that I lacked._____

47 D A G D

It turned out that the lit - tl - est things are what real-ly turned me on._____

49 D A G D A

And now I nev-er ev er take it for grant-ed my morn- ing_ song._____

52 G D A G D

Now the sun it's a-ris - ing and mov-ing a-cross the sky.

55 D A G D D A

I can sense the sea-sons chang-ing and so am I._____ In the day-light the dew it's dry-ing,

58 G D D A

it' - ll soon be_ gone. In the eve-ning the twi - light's cry - ing

60 G D A G D D A G D rit.

for my morn ing_ song._____
